Within the continued follow-up of the Saudi Food & Drug Authority (SFDA) for the food products and verifying their compliance with the requirements of technical regulations and the approved conditions of import and clearance, considering what was observed by the SFDA that some importers of food products submit Halal certificates issued by bodies that are not recognized by the Saudi Halal Center, according to the Food Law promulgated by Royal Decree no. 1. Halal slaughter certificate includes consignments of whole carcasses, their parts, and the entrails of cows, sheep, goats, camels, chickens, ostriches, poultry birds, rabbits, etc. (all carcasses, parts, and entrails of wild animals that are permissible to eat according to Islamic law that have not undergone any manufacturing processes except cutting and packaging).
2. Halal Certificate includes the consignments of the following products:
 - a. Processed, seasoned, and canned meat such as minced meat, burger, mortadella, sausage, dried meat, meatballs, etc.
 - b. Compound food products that contain any proportion of meat, its products and extractions, grease, gelatin, collagen, animal abomasum, and animal-derived enzymes, such as pizza, samosa, pies, cake, soap, sauce, chocolate, candy, supplements, drinks, takeaway, snacks, etc.
